

GREEN Press Release

OPEN CALL FOR EUROPEAN EDUCATION PROVIDERS

Brussels, 07.03.2024 – The GREEN project has announced the launch of its OPEN CALL, inviting European Education Providers in the manufacturing sectors (3-7 EQF2 levels) to join the GREEN VET Providers Network. This initiative is specifically tailored for institutions passionate about advancing green skills training within the Additive Manufacturing, Automotive, Batteries, Defence, Energy, and Maritime industries.

Here's what you need to know:

- ✔ 2-Days Training in Cyprus: Selected applicants will immerse themselves in a dynamic 2-day training event in Cyprus. This 'Train the Trainer' session promises to be an opportunity to share best practices and learn cutting-edge methodologies in green skills.
- ✔ Pilot Training Programs: Be at the forefront of innovation by piloting green competency training programs. Contribute to the exchange of best practices and elevate green skills in your sector.
- ✔ Pedagogical and Technical Support: Align your institution with the highest green standards with the unwavering support of GREEN training providers. Benefit from their expertise in R&D, technological services, and process validation.
- ✔ Green Stamp of Recognition: Stand out as a distinguished Green Education Center and receive the Green Stamp, symbolising your commitment to excellence in green skills training.

Eligibility Criteria:

- Based in Europe
- Education provider in the manufacturing sectors (3-7 EQF2 levels)
- Have English-speaking Staff
- Can participate in face-to-face Train the Trainers sessions
